Storyboard

Course Introduction

Welcome to the course on the Role of Children in a Successful Partnership. In this course, we will explore the importance of involving children in every phase of a partnership, from analysis to evaluation. By engaging children through interactive games, workshops, and activities, we will learn how to collaborate with them effectively to enhance their critical thinking, problem-solving skills, and creativity. Through this course, we aim to inspire and encourage international partnerships with children, ensuring their voices are heard and valued in all aspects of decision-making. Join us as we work together to create a more inclusive and child-centered approach to partnership working.

The slide features a dark purple background with a starry pattern. In the top left corner, there is a glowing yellow lightbulb with rays emanating from it. The main title, "Why to involve children?", is centered in a large, bold, blue font within a yellow, rounded rectangular box. Below the title, there are two white, rounded rectangular boxes containing text in a blue font. The left box says "Ensure children have their needs identified, assessed for better impact" and the right box says "Build good connections to reduce working in isolation and provide a holistic view of children's needs". At the bottom left and right corners, there are green buttons with white text labeled "Back" and "Next" respectively.
